

Freddy the Frog

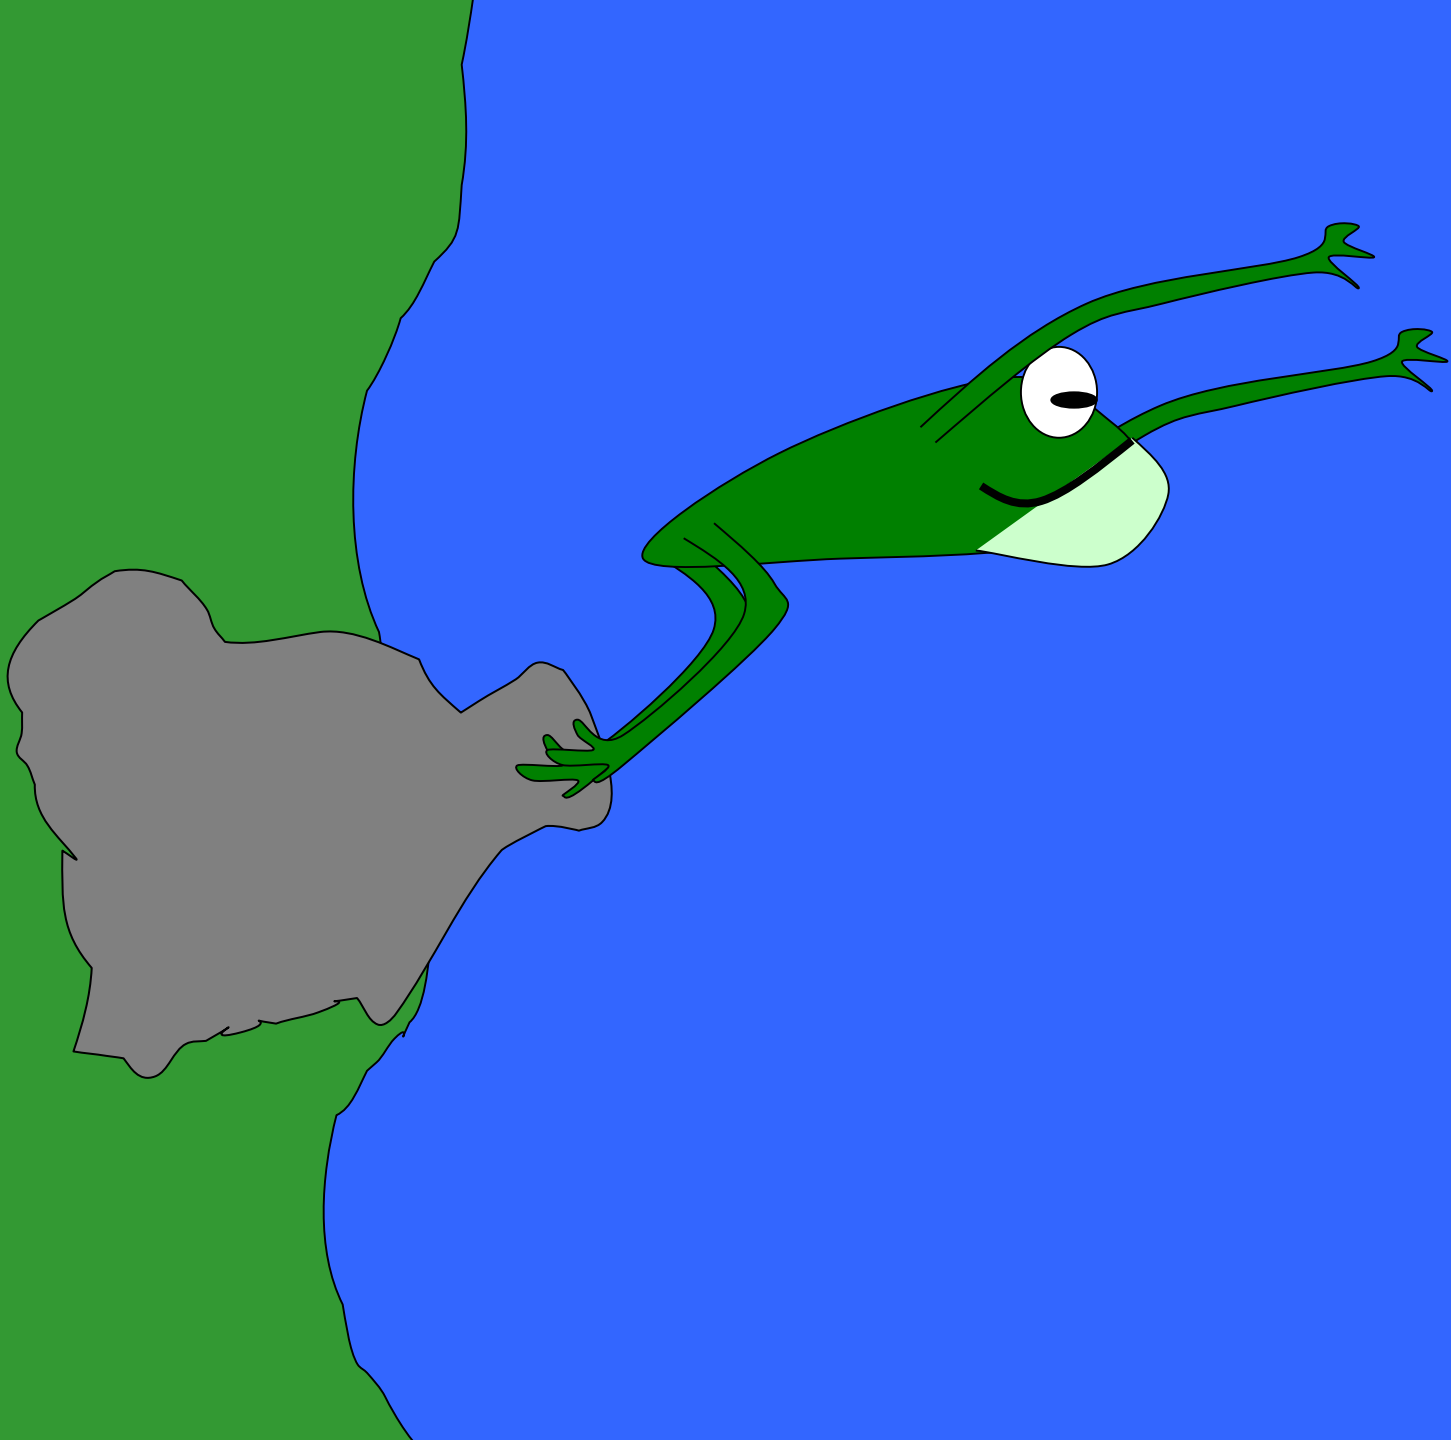

Written and Illustrated by Daniel Rodrigues

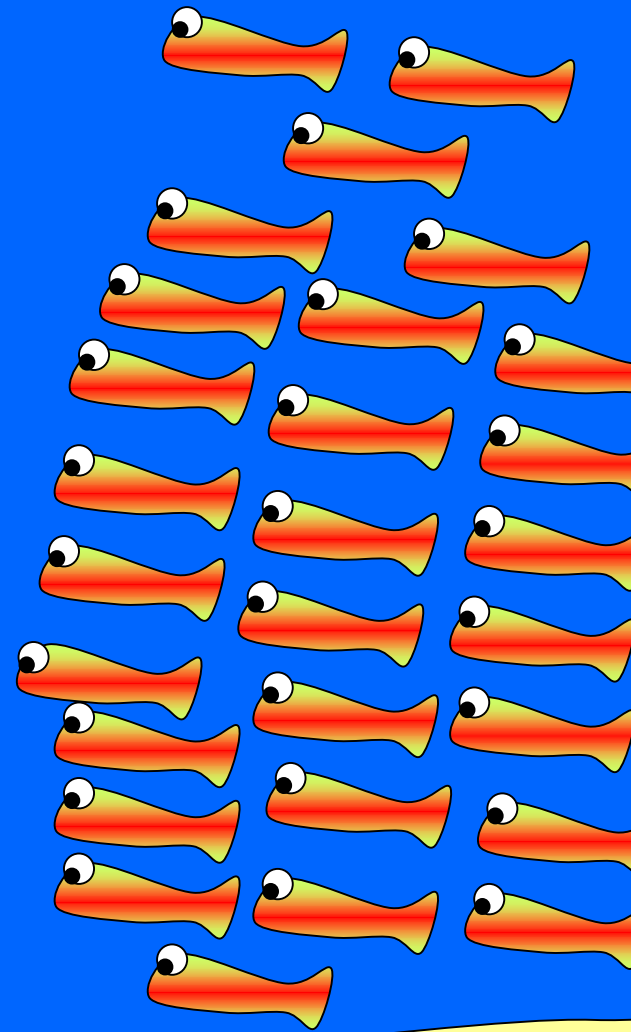

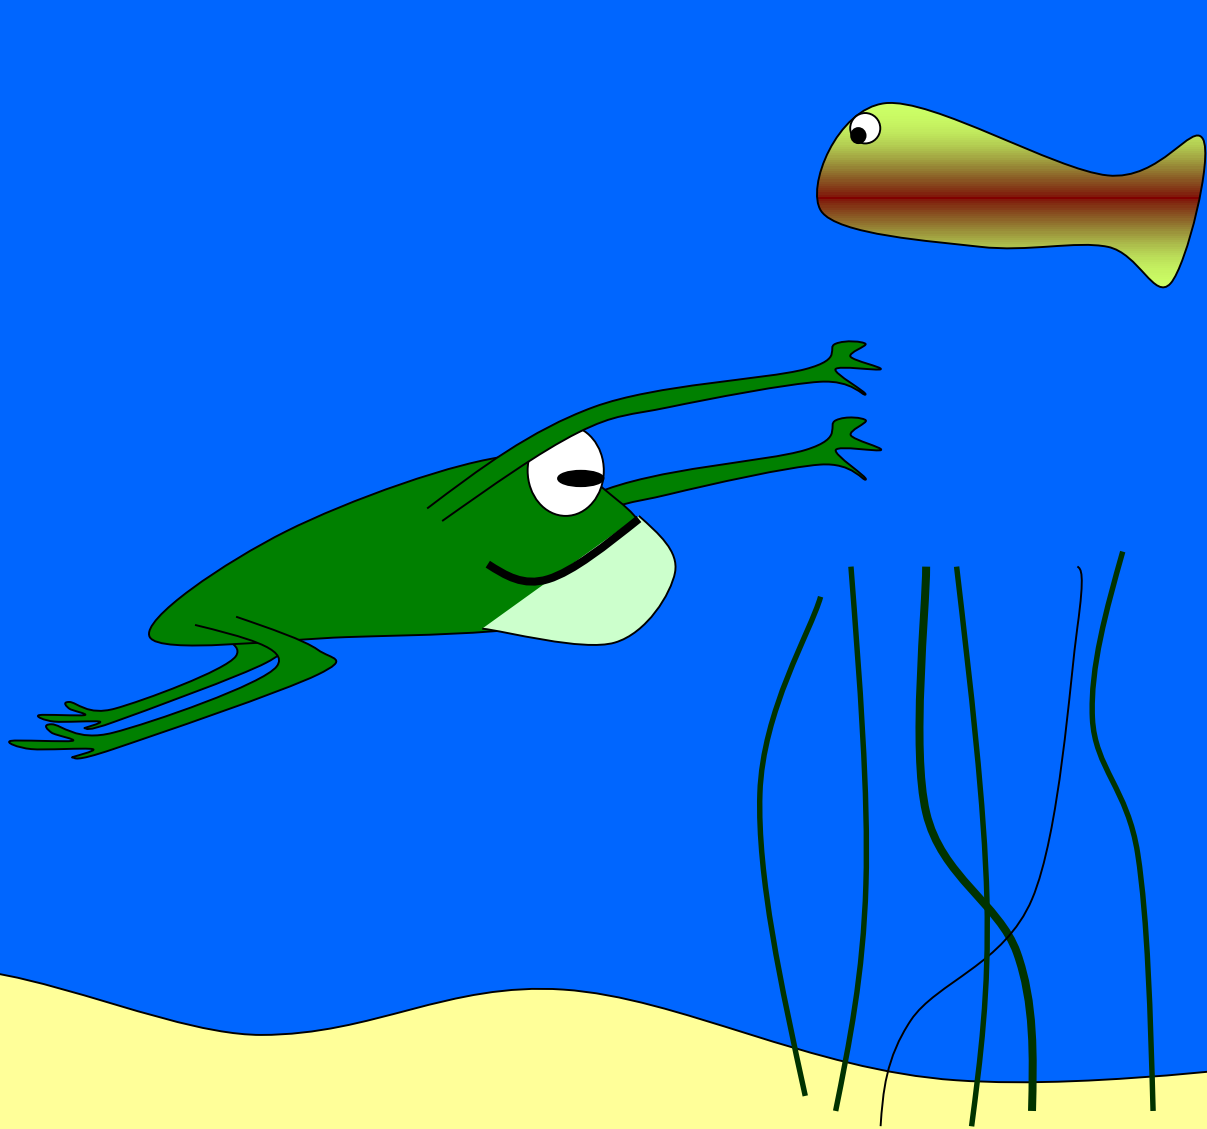

Fred sat on a rock which was right next to a lake. The sun was shining and Fred started to bake.

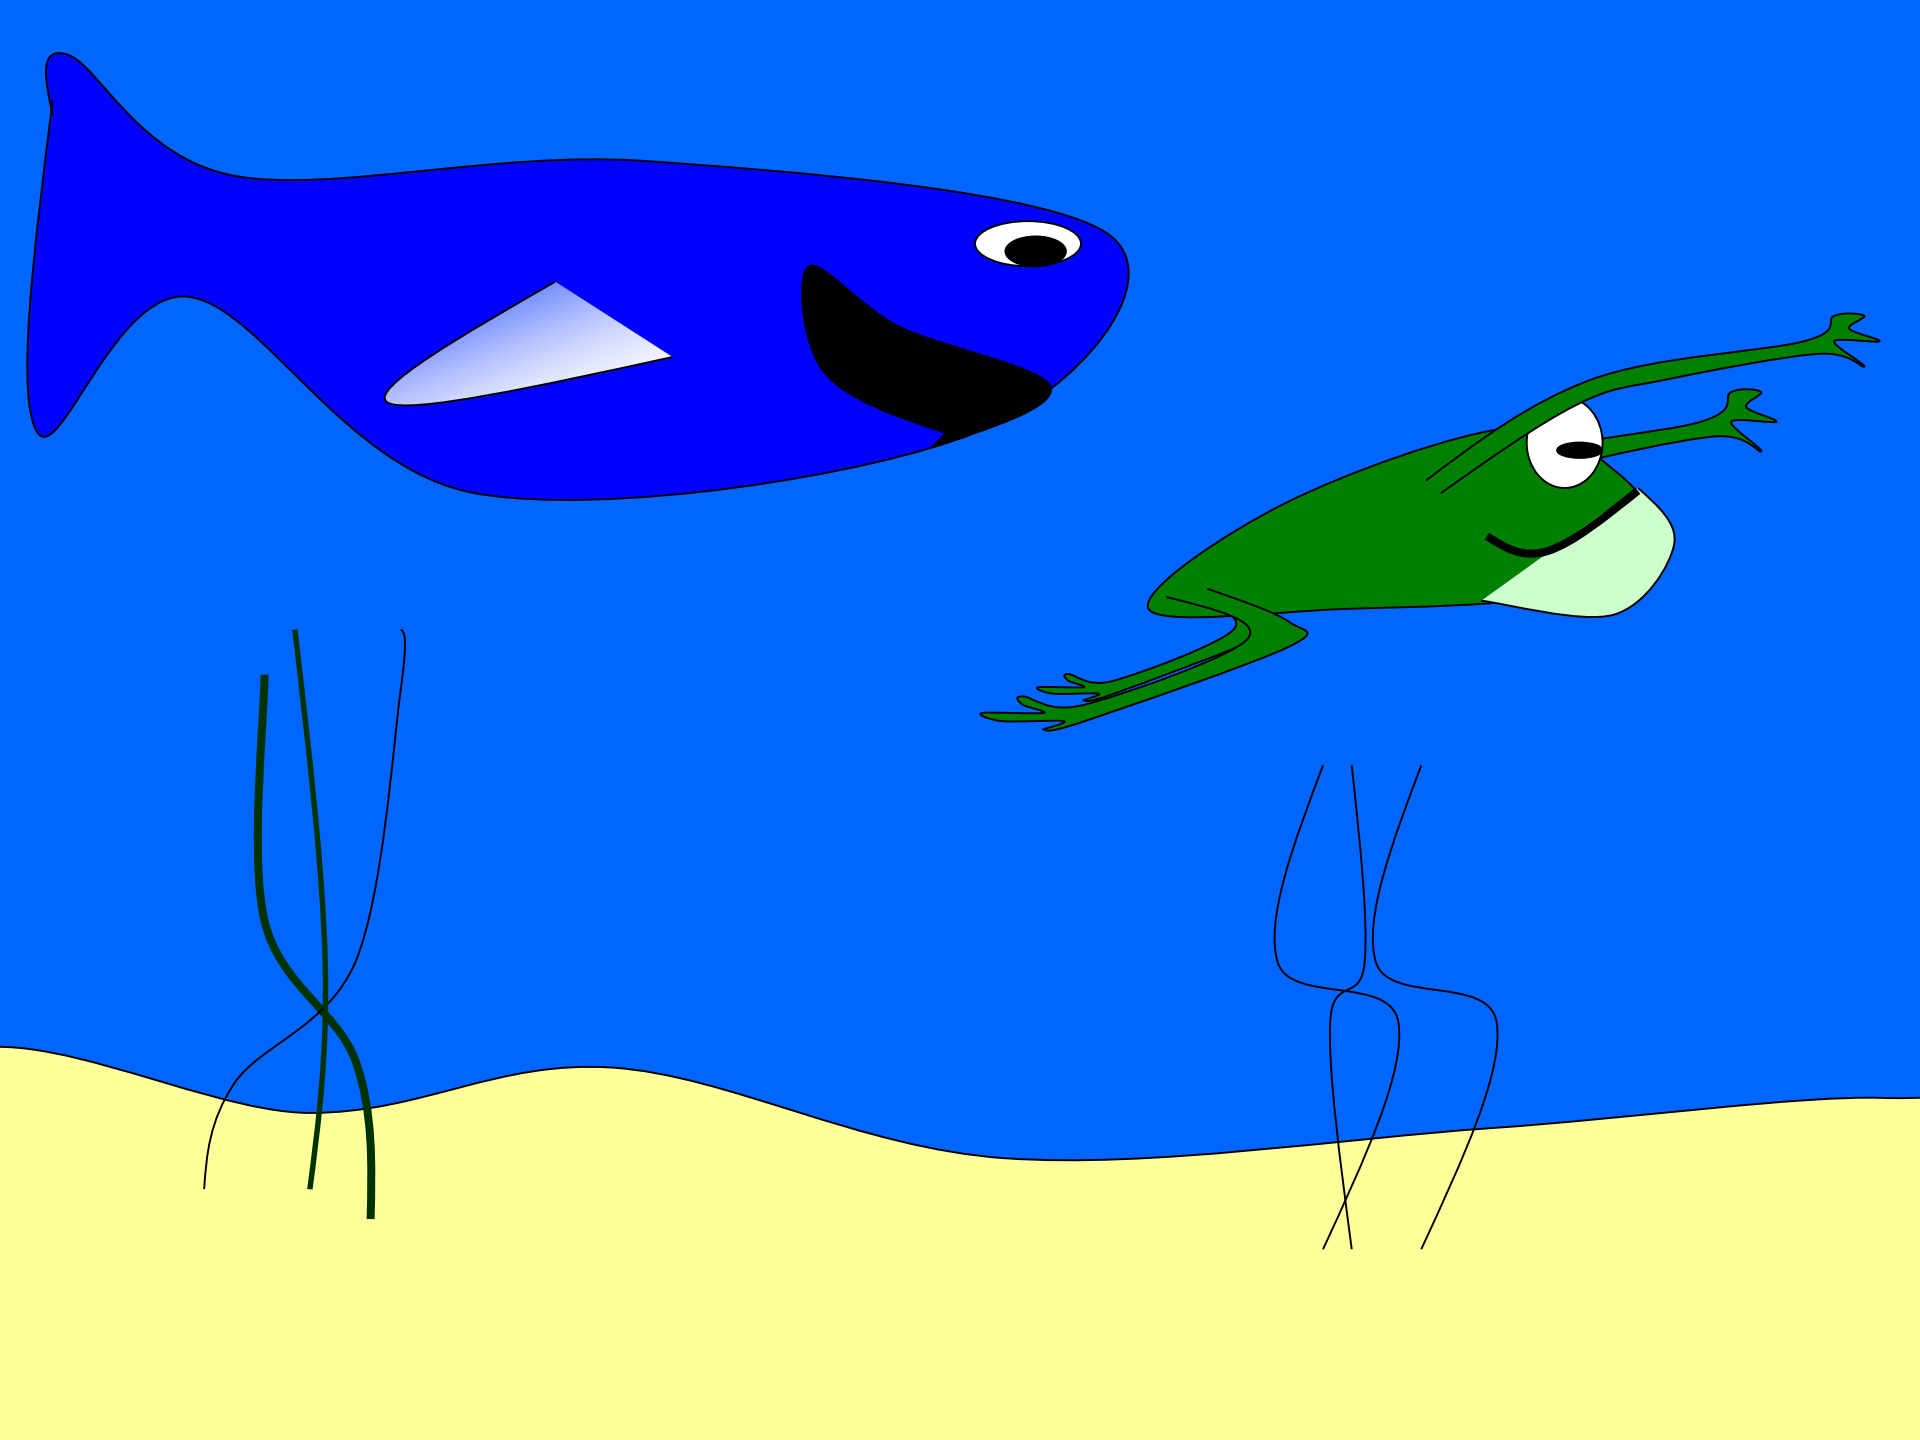

Fred thought that it was getting a little too hot. He decided to have a swim in the lake to cool down.

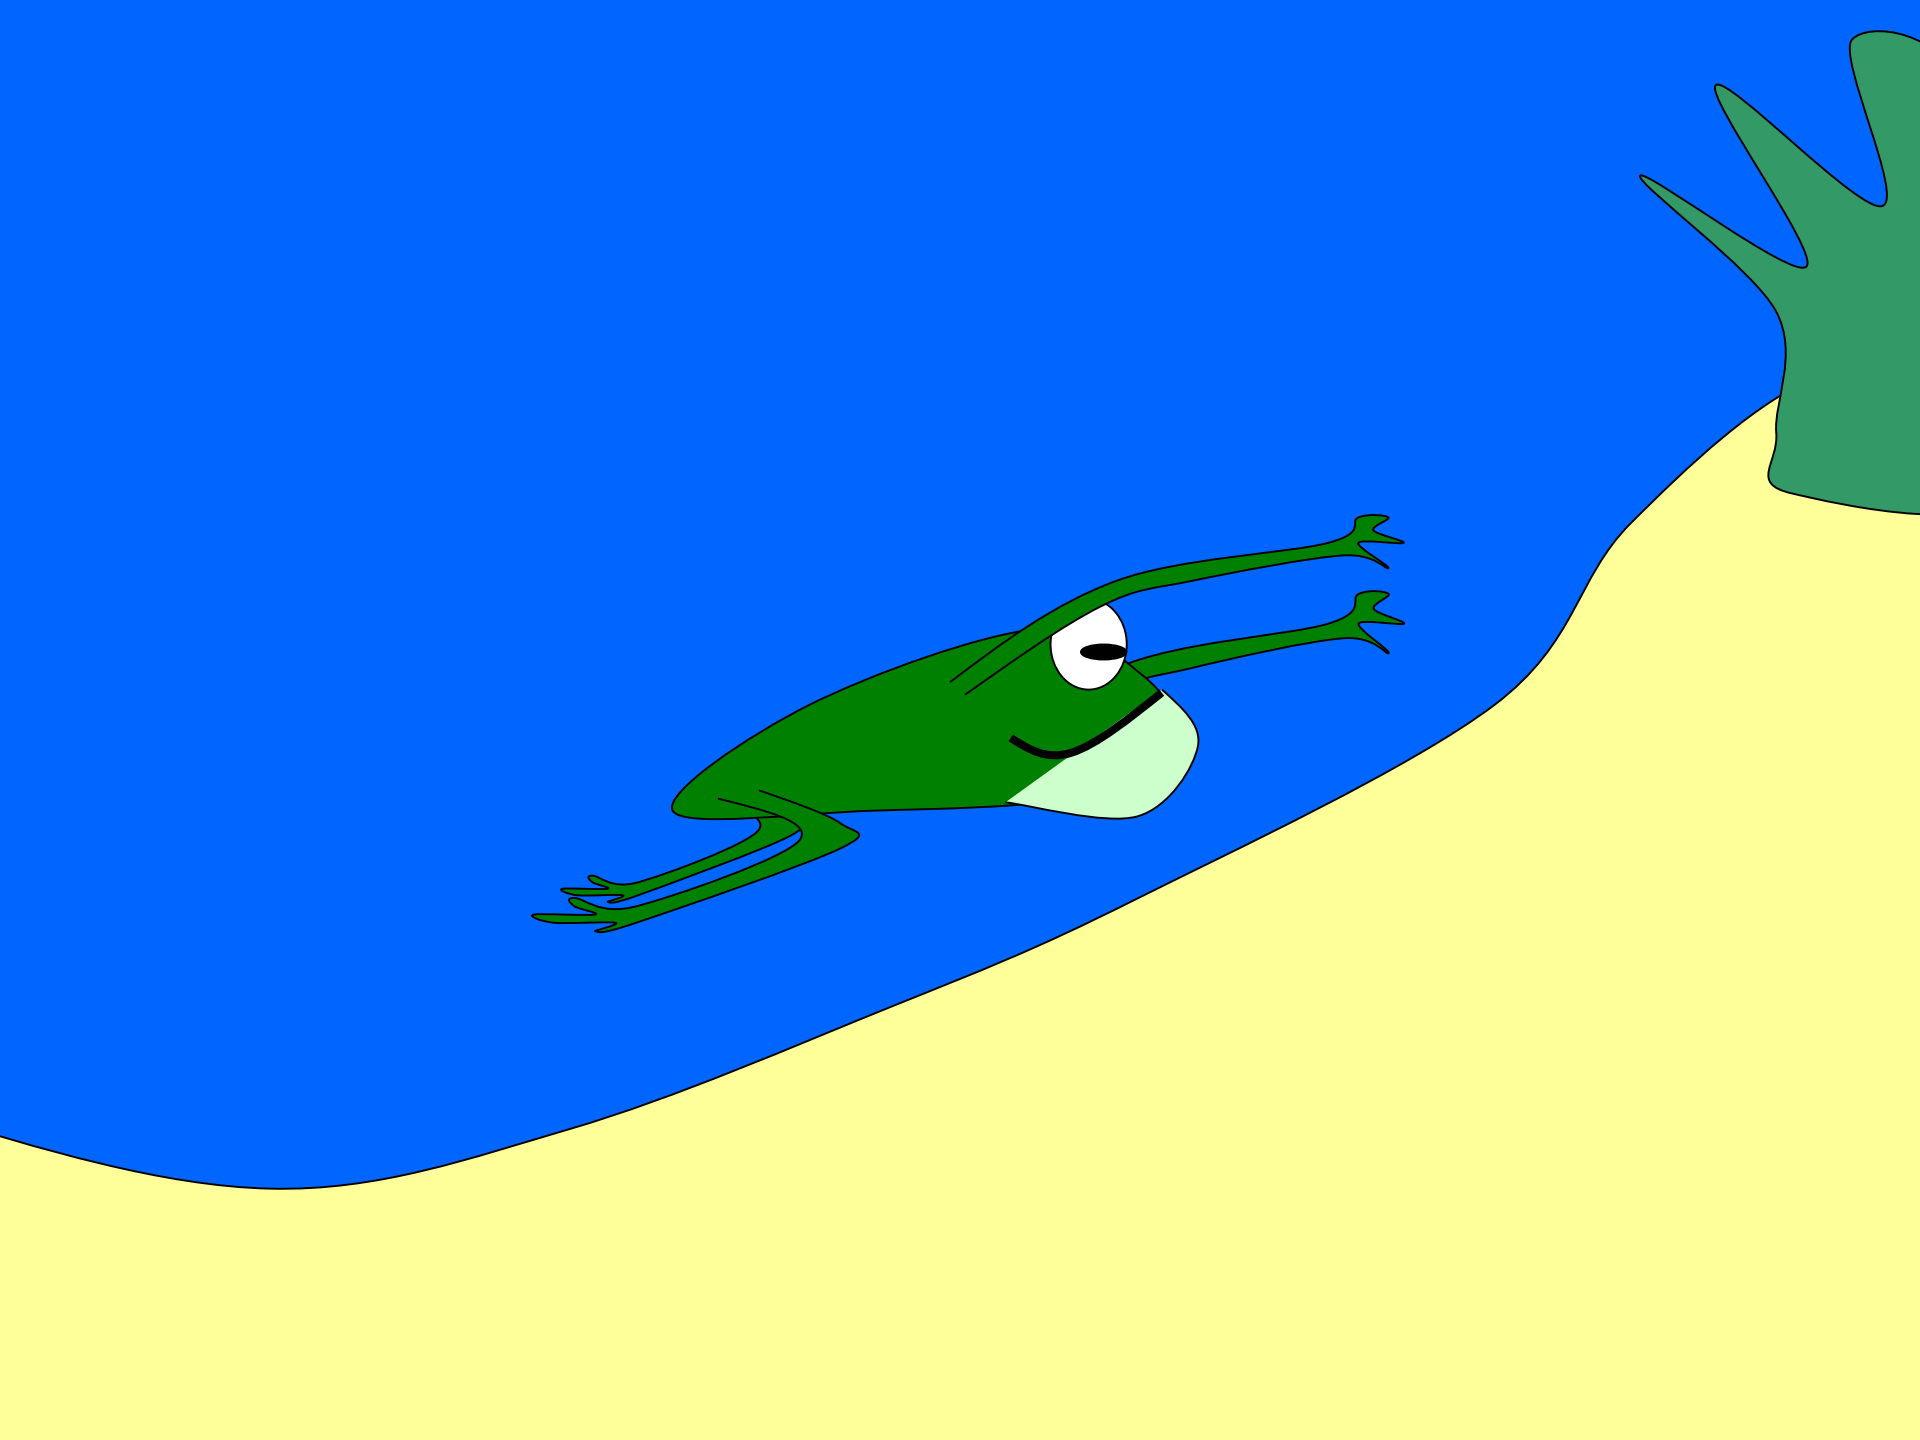

The lake was nice and cool.
There were school fish watching
Fred swim far away.

Sammy the toothless shark was also in the lake. He smiled as Fred continued to swim.

Fred continued to swim until he saw the other side of the lake.

After having a long swim, Fred felt tired, so he went to sleep.

The sun went down and the moon shines tonight. Another day has gone and a new day will begin for Fred.

THE END.
